

Watch OACETT's 2015 AGM & Conference's session on "Continuing Professional Development"

We encourage you to watch 'Own Your Professional Future,' a panel discussion and presentation on continuing professional development (CPD) which took place at OACETT's 2015 AGM & Conference in June.

The panel discussion, moderated by past-president Robin Dunn, C.E.T., focused primarily on the relevance of CPD, the implementation of a mandatory CPD program and the importance of owning your own professional future.

The panelists included:

- Terri Zimmer, human resources lead for R.V. Anderson Associates Limited
- Barry Cavanaugh, J.D., chief executive officer and general counsel of the Association of Science and Engineering Technology Professionals of Alberta
- John Leech, A.Sc.T., CAE, chief executive officer for the Applied Science Technologists and Technicians of British Columbia
- Dianne Tyers, president and CEO of Advance Consulting for Education Inc.

Also, Greg Miller, C.E.T., president-elect outlined the details of the Association's proposed mandatory CPD program.
